

Azlan Amran is an Associate Professor at the Graduate School of Business, Universiti Sains Malaysia. Prior to joining USM, he worked as an accountant for several years. He has published a significant number of articles in the area of CSR in both local and international journals. He is currently supervising PhD, MBA, and Masters candidates in CSR.

At present, he holds the position of Deputy Dean (Academic and Student Affairs) at the Graduate School of Business. In terms of practical experience, he has been involved in several training and consultancy projects in Accounting-related issues and Corporate Social Reporting.

Associate Professor Dr. Azlan Amran is currently holding several grants to support his research on CSR-related issues. He is also a member of the editorial board for several international journals. At the national level, he is a Technical Committee member for ISO 26000.

Yudi Fernando is a Senior Lecturer in Operations Management at the Graduate School of Business, Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM). He received his MBA and PhD from the School of Management at USM, and holds a Bachelor's degree in Business and Management from UNAND, Indonesia. Dr. Yudi has also worked for several years in the electronics industry.

Dr. Yudi Fernando's primary expertise is in research areas related to service management and operations management which include logistics, supply chain management, green technology and applied research for Web 2.0.